This time, we have a joint project between us and http://dothackers.net! We hope you enjoy the first chapter of .hack//GU+!

1. The terms "PK" and "PKK" refer to "Player Killer" and "Player Killer Killer" repsectively. 99% of the time throughout the manga, the term "PK" was used as a noun compared to being used as a verb.

2. (pg. 22) 「月の樹」 can be read as "Moon-Tree" or "Tree of the Moon". However this is a literal reading; a proper reading for this involves flowers for each month of the year, or rather, the lunar calendar. When Sakaki refers to himself as 「月の樹」の神, Sakaki read literally means a sacred Shinto tree. For this reason, we are going with the name Lunar Tree.
(e.g., "I, Sakaki of the Lunar Tree")

   If you wish to check on this, please check http://tinyurl.com/9b4ns to see flowers concerned with each month of the lunar calendar.

3. (pg. 26) In the .hack PS2 games, the form of mail used was "Flash Mail". Although the manga called it "Short Mail", we will call it "Flash Mail" for continuity purposes: that is, until Bandai-Namco decides on a different English name for the .hack//GU PS2 game.

4. (pg. 32, 33) Grima Lowe is a name derived by Shinsou Wotan and Kuukai. Grima is Old English for mask, and lowe is German for lion. For more details, please check the http://dothackers.net forums, but be warned there will be spoilers from the previous games involved.

   Just thought I'd mention, the manga incorrectly spelt the name of the cathedral as グリーマ・レーグ (Grima Leeg) while the magazine clearly spells it as グリーマ・レーヴ (Grima Löwe). We'll be using the magazine's kana for this (only CC2 can get their names right, see) ^_^;

Later, he meets Ovan, who Haseo had known long ago, along with Shino, having been involved in the same guild. He gives Haseo information on Tri-Edge and leaves abruptly. Sorry that this took a while to get completed, but here is the second chapter of the manga!
P.S. The first chapter was released 1/20/2006, not 2005! ^^;

1. The terms "PK" and "PKK" refer to "Player Killer" and "Player Killer Killer" repsectively. The term "PK" can be used as a noun or as a verb (Player Kill).

2 「月の樹」can be read as "Moon-Tree" or "Tree of the Moon" However this is a literal reading; a proper reading for this involves flowers for each month of the year, or rather, the lunar calendar. When Sakaki refers to himself as 「月の樹」の榊, Sakaki read literally means a sacred Shinto tree. For this reason, we are going with the name Lunar Tree. (e.g., "I, Sakaki of the Lunar Tree")

If you wish to check on this, please check http://tinyurl.com/9b4ns to see flowers concerned with each month of the lunar calendar.

3 (p. 18) There is a reference to the term "A.I.D.A." Though it is not explained in the Japanese text of the manga, the abbreviation was revealed in the .hack//GU PS2 trailer as "Artificially Intelligent Data Anomaly".

4 (p. 25) The Epitaph line was mentioned by Yata in the TGS 2005 trailer for .hack//GU Vol.1 - Resurrection. This may infer a reference to the Epitaph of Twilight, a book written by Emma Wielant in the original PS2 games.

The encounter with Yata and Pai, System Administrators of The World, and the reunion with Atoli... Once reviewing the awkward meeting of these main characters from the previous installment, you'll enjoy this chapter threefold!

Outline of Story

◀ After talking with Atoli, Haseo decided to cooperate with Yata and Pai. A full blown battle will finally begin from here on out.

▲ After hearing Tri-Edge's true name of Kite of the Azure Flame in the System Area, Haseo once refused to cooperate.

◆ STORY SYNOPSIS

It is 2017 and the famous online game, "The World," has transformed into a dangerous world where Players kill each other. The main character Haseo in order to chase the mysterious being known as 'Tri-Edge' for the purpose of saving his friend Shino, took on the title of "The Terror of Death" as he hunted PKs (Player Killers) to gain information.

Later, Haseo having heard from his former friend Ovan where Tri-Edge appeared, challenged Tri-Edge to a battle and, at his wit's end, was defeated. Afterwards he awoke in the System Area called 'the Snafre of Knowledge.' He was requested by the System Administrators, Pai and Yata, to join forces with them, but refused. However, after talking to Atoli, whom he met again in the City of Rain, he reconsidered the prior request and headed over to the System Area once more. Yata and Pai welcomed Haseo.

Yata
The Dance Macabre who governs the mysterious place called the Snafre of Knowledge. He seems to know about Tri-Edge too.

Atoli
A Harvest who was saved from a group of P.K.s by Haseo. Belongs to the Lunar Tree Guild.

Haseo
Nicknamed "The Terror of Death" by PKs, he is a feared P.K.K. who pursues Tri-Edge.

Shino
Former member of the Twilight Brigade with Ovan and Haseo. Unconscious since being P.K.ed by Tri-Edge.

Ovan
The leader of the Twilight Brigade that Haseo used to belong to. Suddenly appeared before Haseo.

Pai
A Grappler who chases after Tri-Edge with Yata. She seems bossy, but is that her true personality?

Bordeaux has fought against Haseo once more. Who are these users with the power to oppose the A.I.D.A.?... Review the previous chapter, and your enjoyment shall Level Up!!

Outline of Story

◀ Kuhn's Avatar appeared and defeated the AIDA-corrupted Bordeaux.

▲ Haseo, who once PKked Bordeaux, found himself without the strength to oppose her.

◆ STORY SYNOPSIS

It is 2017. The world's largest Online game "The World," has transformed into a dangerous place where fellow players kill one another for sport. The protagonist Haseo has also become a player-killer-killer (PKK) and challenged Tri-Edge in order to try and rescue Shino (who lays in a coma even now). Haseo, however, was defeated. Soon after he was almost PKed by Bordeaux, who was corrupted by an AIDA as well, but was saved from this fate by the Avatar "Magus" controlled by Kuhn, an Epitaph User.

Then, Haseo learned that only power which can oppose an AIDA such as Tri-Edge is the use of something called an 'Avatar'. Haseo, upon learning that he too is an Epitaph User, he demands the chance to use its power. Finally Kuhn has brought him to an Arena to watch an Epitaph User controlled by an AIDA – Endrance!...

Yata
The Dunes Macabre who governs the mysterious place called the Snake of Knowledge. He seems to know about Tri-Edge too...

Atoli
A Harvest who was saved from a group of PKs by Haseo. Belongs to the Lunar Tear Guild.

Haseo
A feared PKK who is called the "Terror of Death" by many PKs. He is chasing Tri-Edge.

Kuhn
The Epitaph User of Magus, "The Progenitor." This power allows him to oppose AIDA.

Ovan
The leader of the Twilight Brigade that Haseo used to belong to. Suddenly appeared before Haseo.

Pai
A Grappler who chases after Tri-Edge with Yata. She seems bossy, but is that her true personality?
